This story is about an old fisherman. He works a lot, but he is very poor. One day he catches a goldfish. She promises any reward. But the old man doesn't want anything. He lets the fish go. When he gets home, he tells his wife about it. She shouts, "You are a fool". She forces him to return to the sea and ask for a new bucket. By the sea, an old man calls the fish, which appears and promises to fulfill his wish, saying: "Do not be sad, go with God."
